

WHO WE ARE

The KY Youth MOVE Council is an eighteen member council that advises the KPFC Board of Directors. All members are between 14 and 26 years of age and have an emotional or behavioral health diagnosis. KY Youth MOVE works to reduce stigma, to promote a youth-guided approach, and to provide youth voice at all levels of the system of care. KY Youth MOVE meets throughout the year to focus on issues related to Children's Behavioral Health. Members have other opportunities to serve as youth trainers, mentors and coaches of youth, present workshops, attend conferences, and to sit on councils, committees, and boards.

Who can be a KYM Member?

To be a member of KYM, you must be 14 to 26 years old and have a behavioral health diagnosis. You must also wish to positively impact the experiences of other young people with behavioral health challenges in Kentucky.

KY Youth Move is a group of youth that want to help other youth. Members are from different areas of the state of Kentucky.

The Youth Council uses their lived experiences to help educate other youth, parents, and professionals about Behavioral Health.

The council learns leadership and advocacy skills, and focuses on ways to reduce stigma, promote youth voice, and help other youth.

Meetings are usually in Frankfort, KY. Mileage reimbursement is given for members to attend meetings.
